

WHAT READERS SAY:

“The beautiful wisdom pouring from this book gives faith and hope, not only for each individual person, but also for the entire community. Awareness and trust can lead to miracles, I have always known that – and I hope that those of you who doubt will find in this book many, many answers to your questions. Do we live in a world of illusion? Is a human being ruled by fate or is our free will more significant? What kind of universal laws rule the world? Why do some people attract a specific person or a particular event? Is there karma? What unites all people? What kind of vibrations are beneficial for the soul? How many ways of spiritual development are there? How not to confuse spirituality with religion? The list of the topics is long... It is best to steep some of your favorite tea, dive into a comfortable armchair and hit the road to experience the journey on which Johanna Kern takes you. A journey that is life-changing.”
